That shoots an arrow through the eyes, Within your heart to rankle. Of course you turn your gaze aside, And all your blushes stifle, For well you know she's not aware. Her skirts are raised a trifle, And should you think she might perchance Have on a loosened gaiter,

Your fingers itch to play the part Of honest lady's waiter. Though tantalized till he is crazed-Stark mad with wild romancing, That witching foot along his brain, A t'ousand waltzes daneing, The while it merely lightly pits, As thoughtlessly she may move it-No modest man would dare to dream There is a leg above it.

But when it trips along the street, Through winds and mud and vapor, By sheer accident you see How beautiful the taper; And as it steps upon the walk, Amiast the crowd to mingle, Two roguish eyes look up and say, "I wonder if he's single?"

But I would have no lady think I fancy her a schemer, And beg her to remember that The poet is a dreamer; He sees what others do not see, And seeks for hidden beauty-No pretty face can lure him from The path of moral duty.

INFLUENCE OF THE PHYSICIAN. - HOW many thousand faces must have passed before the doctor's eyes; how many pitiable tales of wo must have been poured into his ears; what awful secrets must find a repository beneath the black satin waistcoat! We may lie to the lawyer, we may lie to the confessor, but to the doctor we cannot lie. The murder must out. The prodigal pressed for an account of his debts will keep one back; the penitent will hide some sin from his ghostly director; but from the NORTH AMERICAN GUTTA PERCHA CO., doctor we can hide nothing, or we die. He is our greatest master here on earth.

The successful tyrant crouches before bows the knee; the stern worldly man clings desperately to him as the anchor westers, Storm Caps, Bathing Mats, Druggist Goods, that will hold him from drifting into the and darkness that hath no limits. The doctor knows no rank. The mutilated begbe a more interesting case to him than the sick duchess. He despises beauty—

the sick duchess. He despises beauty—
ing liable to there may be canker in its bloom. He laughs at wealth-it may be rendered intolerable by disease. He values not trated Catalogues forwarded by mail or otherwise youth—it may be ripe for the tomb, as when requested S. EDDY, Agent for the Company, hay for the sickle. He makes light of power-it cannot cure an ache nor avert a twinge of gout. He only knows, acknowledges, values, respects two things: Life and Death .- Household Words.

DISEASES ARISING FROM THE IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD. Prepared by J. L. KIDWELL, Chemist, George-

The estimate that is now accorded this preparation by the medical profession and by others competent to judge of its merits, may be seen in the feet that it has been prescribed by many of our most eminent Physicians in this country, and has attracted the attention of a celebrated profession of the Edinburg College, Scotland, by whom it has been successfully used in a career of an aggravated The proprieter has been forced to make more extensive arrangements to meet the rapidly increasing demand for BEECH DROP.

VINCENNES, INDIANA, Oct. 3, 1854. J. L. Kidwell-Dear Sir: Some three months ago, through the agency of Col Smith Miller, our representation in Congress, I had purchased of you, for the use of my father in Scotland, one dozen Bottles of Beech Drop or Cancer Preparation. I have a let-ter from my brother, stating that the physician de-sires you to forward another dozen bottles. He thinks under its use the disease is arrested. I may add that my father has tried every physician of distinction in Scotland and England, including Prof-ssors of Edinburg and Colleges, without relief. The disease was of three years standing, began in the right cheek, which is partially consumed. He was sufferer with constant pain, which has entirely

This case will give your preparation a popularity in Britain which no other medicine has. Direct to William Dick, Esq , Collydean, by Leslie Scotland, care of Messrs. Pentoed, Clay & Co., Druggists, N. York, who will forward it. JAMES DICK.

CALLAWAY COUNTY, MISSOURI, July 13th, 1854. Dear Sir-With great pleasure I inform that your preparation of Beech Drop has accomplished for me what I thought beyond the reach of human agency. For the last twelve years I have been afflicted with Secofula of a Cancerous form. So extensive was the ulcers and so horrible my appearance that my case became notorious with all the Faculty in this and the adjoining counties-in fact I had obtained the hest medical aid in our State, without any shatement of the disease. Through a friend I procured half dozen bottles of your Beech Drep, after using t, so perfect was the cure, that hundreds visited me. My desire is to benefit my fellow man; with that purpose I beg all afflicted with Scrofuls in any form Enclosed you will find an order from some friends for the preparation. Very truly, JNO. C. FLINT. For sale by Druggists and Dealers in Medicines in Washington, Alexandria, and Baltimore.
